Question:-

As salaamu alaikum
I hope you are well , I have a pet rabbit and I just want to find out if they are paak? If I hold my rabbit can I read salaah with the same clothes? Jazakallah.

Answer:-

Assalamu alaikum wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuhu

Muhtaram student,
Yes , Rabbits are paak and if one Carries a rabbit before reading Salaah , then the Salaah is Vaild. If a few drops of urine falls on the clothing then this will be regarded as Najaasat-e-Khafeefah(A light form of impurity) then Salaah in such clothing will be valid if it contaminates a quarter of the clothing. This only refers to the urine of Halaal animals.
Also if no urine made then a person should not doubt the animal itself , this does not make a person napaak.

Jazakallah khair.

ALLAH TA'ALA KNOWS BEST!

Was-Salaam
